FOR MARRIAGE LICENSES

OLD COMMISSIONS ALL BEING WITHDRAWN.

Agents to Grant Licenses Now Get Commissions from Treasurer Wright.
Old Commissions Revoked.

Treasurer Wright has issued a "By Authority" notice to holders of commissions as agents to grant marriage licenses to the effect that all such licenses issued before November 14, 1900, will become null and void after November 15, 1900. Those who want licenses are to apply to the department of Public Instruction.

The announcement is the result of the change in law by reason of the application of the Organic Act. This law provided that the duties of the Minister of the Interior of the Republic of Hawaii, as far as licenses were concerned, should be turned over to the Treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii. Among these duties is that of issuing commissions to grant marriage licenses.

The old law provided that the Minister of the Interior should appoint a suitable number of agents to grant marriage licenses. The Organic Act, doing away with the office of minister of the interior, provided that this part of that law's duties should devolve upon the Treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii.
Under the old law, the commissions were to be issued on approval of the Board of Education, and this part of the law still stands. The applicants are therefore now referred to the Board of Education.

Since the transfer of government there have been about 50 applications to grant licenses under the new system, but only a few of them have been accepted upon so far. The transfer of this business from the Interior, or Public Works department to the Treasurer's office is now to be completed, and after the 15th of next month, all the old licenses, issued by the Minister of the Interior of Hawaii, will be void. They have been used up to this time. In the Organic Act the section of the Hawaiian code providing for the issuance of such commissions was expressly retained, sections on both sides of it being repealed.

is $7,500, with the privilege of increasing to $20,000. The officers and principal stockholders are J. J. Newcomb, berg, secretary, twenty-five shares; P.

Nicklas, treasurer, two shares; George

PORTO RICAN BURGLAR.

Jose, a young Porto Rican, in appearances do not mislead, a bold, bad burglar. Mounted Patrolman Gumpher noticed the fellow at Moanaluna yesterday, and not liking his looks, watched him. He was seen to enter a dwelling house from which the inmates were absent, and after a while to make his exit. Gumpher accosted him and after a brief confab, placed him under arrest on a charge of burglary.

AN ADVERTISING BOOKLET.

"Side Lights" is the title of an attractive brochure, the first number of which has just been issued in Hilo by the Hawaiian Advertising Company. C.
L. Clement is the manager of the new enterprise and is responsible for the judiciously selected reading matter and natty typographical appearance of the publication. The contents include an article on State Advertising and are devoted chiefly to exploiting Hilo and the "big" island, voicing as the chief end of the editor the publication of probable advertising methods in Hawaii for national and local advertisers alike.

PULLOA A RESORT.

Dowsett Estate Sub-dividing Beach Property.

Pulloa is to be a new seaside resort, according to plans of the Dowsett Estate Company, which has been laying out lots along the beach with a view to opening the district as such a resort.
The company had intended to do so before, but was waiting to see what lands would be claimed by the United States Government for a Pearl Harbor naval station.

The estate has two miles of ocean frontage on the Ewa side of the entrance to Pearl Harbor. There is a very fine beach for bathing here. Arrangements will be made for transportation from Honolulu, to install a water system, etc., and work is now going forward on the laying out of a town site.
Lots along the shore are 200 feet by 100 feet. There is to be a boulevard 100 feet wide, with more lots mauka.

IT HAPPENED IN A DRUG STORE.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." The remedy owes its great popularity and extensive sale in a large measure to the personal recommendations of people who have been cured by its use.
It is for sale by all druggists, John Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Islands.
